Yes, the contractor is compiling and categorizing the comments. Once that happens, I asked Valois to identify those issues that she thinks ORC will need to respond to instead of having the program address first, so that we would have maximum time to work on those responses. So, I would expect to hear from Valois on that by the end of Jan. So, for now, I think just sit tight, but it should be on your horizon as far as work load.

Thanks for the heads up.

Do you know the program's next steps and timelines? I wonder if it's worth meeting with them to discuss.

Hey Omar, when you are done fixing the website emergency of the day, can you pull the comments from the Oglala Sioux Tribe for me and send them to me? Thanks!
